

The Idol of the Screen

Rudolph Valentino

and his wife

Winifred Hudnut Valentino

will hold a grand dancing festival
and MINERALAVA Beauty Contest

THE HIPPODROME, TONIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Valentino will give several exhibition dances including the famous, Four Horsemen, Tango. Music by Valentino's Argentine Orchestra.

THE VALENTINO MINERALAVA BEAUTY CONTEST

Rudolph Valentino will select Southbridge's most beautiful girl who will be given a free trip to New York and the opportunity to contest in his national beauty contest, the winner of which he plans to have as the leading lady of his next big motion picture. The Southbridge Prize Beauty will be presented with two dolls—the exact replicas of Mr. and Mrs. Valentino in Argentine costume. These dolls cost $100 each. The girls who wish to enter the beauty contest should be at the Hippodrome not later than 8:15 P. M.

SPECIAL BALLROOM DANCING CONTEST

Mr. and Mrs. Valentino will conduct a special ballroom dancing contest. The prize for which is a 24 inch silver cup.

General Dancing For All

Popular Prices

Tickets on sale at the Hippodrome

Stage Herald Thursday May 17 1923

S E L E C T E D Virginia and Spanish peanuts, golden New Orleans molasses, pure cane sugar and other wholesome ingredients made into candies that every one likes.

New Kings are crunchy molasses chips filled with peanut butter. Then there are peanut butter kisses, Krispy Kups and the most wonderful peanut brittle you ever tasted.

You may trust the children with Kibbe's Candies. In 79 years their quality has never been compromised.

Kibbe's

Peanut Butter

Kibbe's peanut butter is smooth and rich—it spreads like butter. Selected Virginia and Spanish peanuts are blended, roasted and ground in our own factory.

Try a small jar to-day. You'll probably want a pair next time.

In 4, 16 and 26 ounce jars and 3 1/4 pound pails.

Wherever good candy is sold

SOUTHBRIDGE.

old E. Morehouse now occupies as he recently purchased from Powers at 13 Columbus avenue.

s Alice Dupaul, who graduated at Mary E. Wells High school, has accepted a position in the department of the American Company.

s Pauline Martel, president of the Girls' club, and the Misses eland, Lauretta Surprenant, Rita Emelda Langevin and Margaret were in Fitchburg Saturday at the meeting of the Massachusetts League of Girls' clubs.

oid Lucier, son of Mrs. Camille 26 Charlton street, and Miss Jessie Clark, daughter of Mr. and orge W. Clark, of 6 Lens court, urred at 8 o'clock Tuesday morn- sacred Heart church, Rev. Real F. officiating. A reception follows at Clark home, many being present. om is a foreman at the plant of de Manufacturing Co. and the employed in the gold room of the in Optical Co. The couple will be present at the home of the parents.

SOUTHBRIDGE.

—M. R. Baskie is one of the latest arrivals in Southbridge, coming from Winnipeg to join the office force at the plant of the American Optical Company.

—There was a large crowd at the Hippodrome Friday night to see Rudolph Valentino, the film star. Valentino selected Miss Phyllis McCarthy of Ware as the prettiest girl, and she was presented two dolls. Miss Madeline Bird and Roland Dupaul, both of Southbridge were selected as the best dancers and a large silver loving cup, lined with gold, was presented them.

—The board of selectmen were in Boston Tuesday attending the hearing on the National Bank tax bill. Stockholders of national banks claim they have been taxed illegally for the last five years. Should the United States Supreme court rule for the stockholders on the grounds that the tax improperly was levied, the different municipalities will have to refund the tax money which has been paid. According to the selectmen, this would mean that in Southbridge approximately $63,000 would have to be returned, about $10,000 to Southbridge stockholders and some $23,000 to out-of-town stockholders.

SOUTHBRIDGE.

—The Swastika class of the Elm-street Congregational church will hold a foot sale in the vestry of the church, Friday, June 8, at 3:30 o'clock. The public cordially is invited.

—James Earl Hathaway of New York City, a former office manager at the plant of the Southbridge Printing Co., has been visiting in Southbridge for a few days, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wardwell M. Edwards, 8 Edwards street.

—The funeral of Mrs. Margaret (Wilson) (Oldham) Bates, widow of Ira J. Bates, who died Friday in the home of Mrs. Hattie L. Phillips, 14 South street, at the age of 77 years, was Sunday at the home of Mrs. Phillips, and was private. The services were at 2 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. Leigh R. Urban, pastor of Holy Trinity church. Burial was in the family lot in Oak Ridge cemetery, in charge of the S. Williams estate. Mrs. Bates is survived by four children, Thomas Oldham, who lives in Japan; Miss Maude Oldham, of Bayonne, N. J.; Mrs. George A. Hanson, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Harry P. Oldham of Southbridge, children by her first marriage with Henry Oldham.